ASH: A Hard Act to Follow

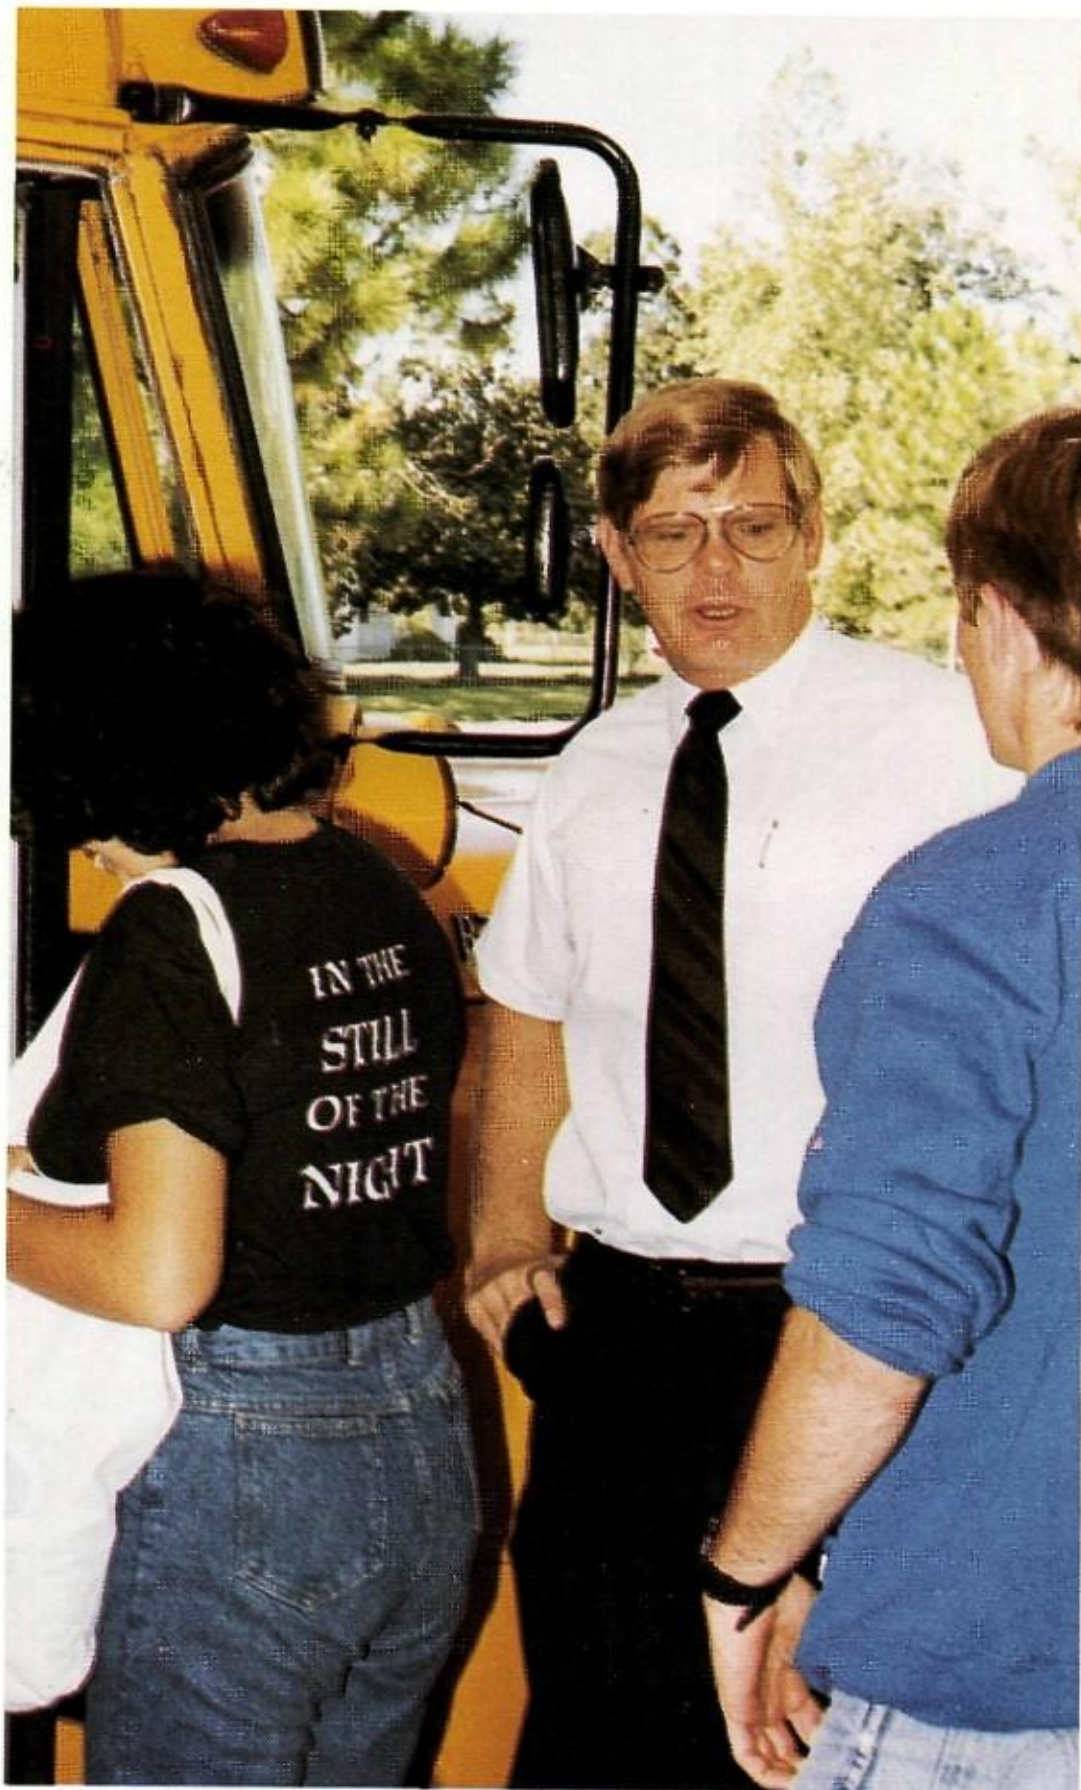

ASH: A HARD ACT TO FOLLOW

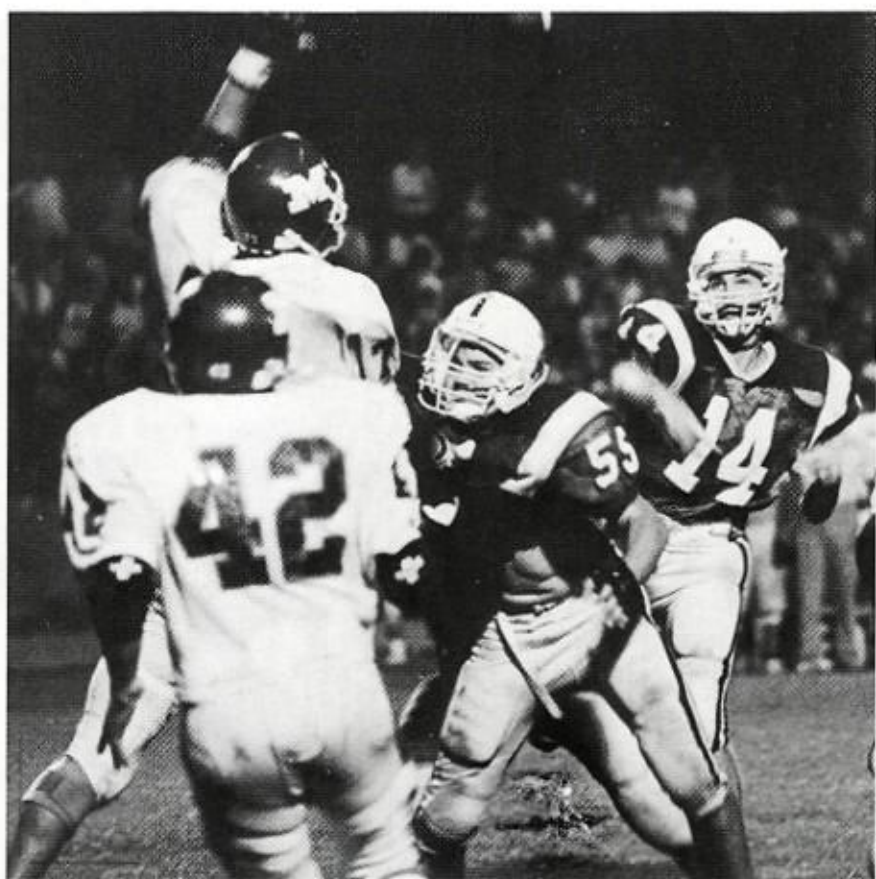

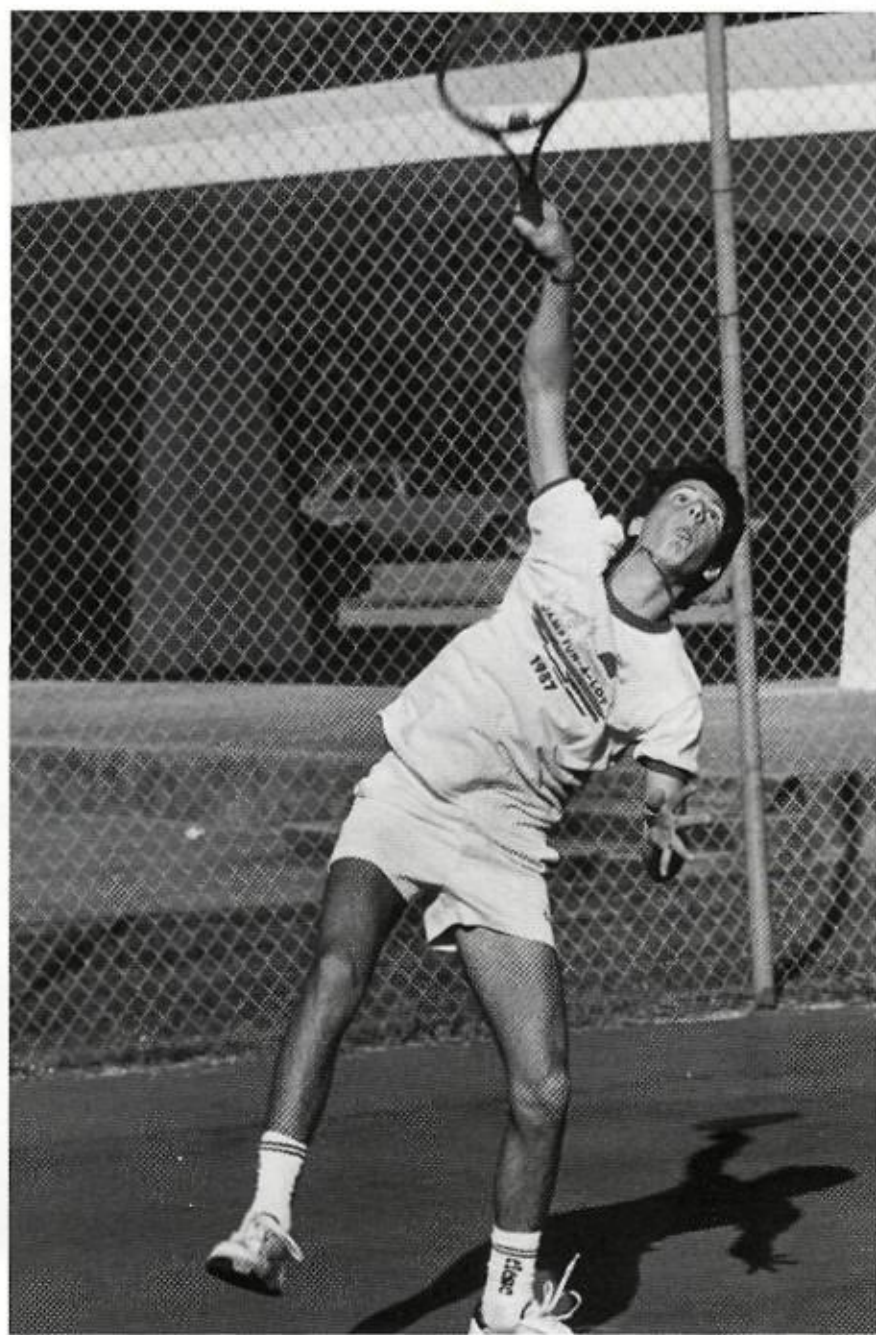

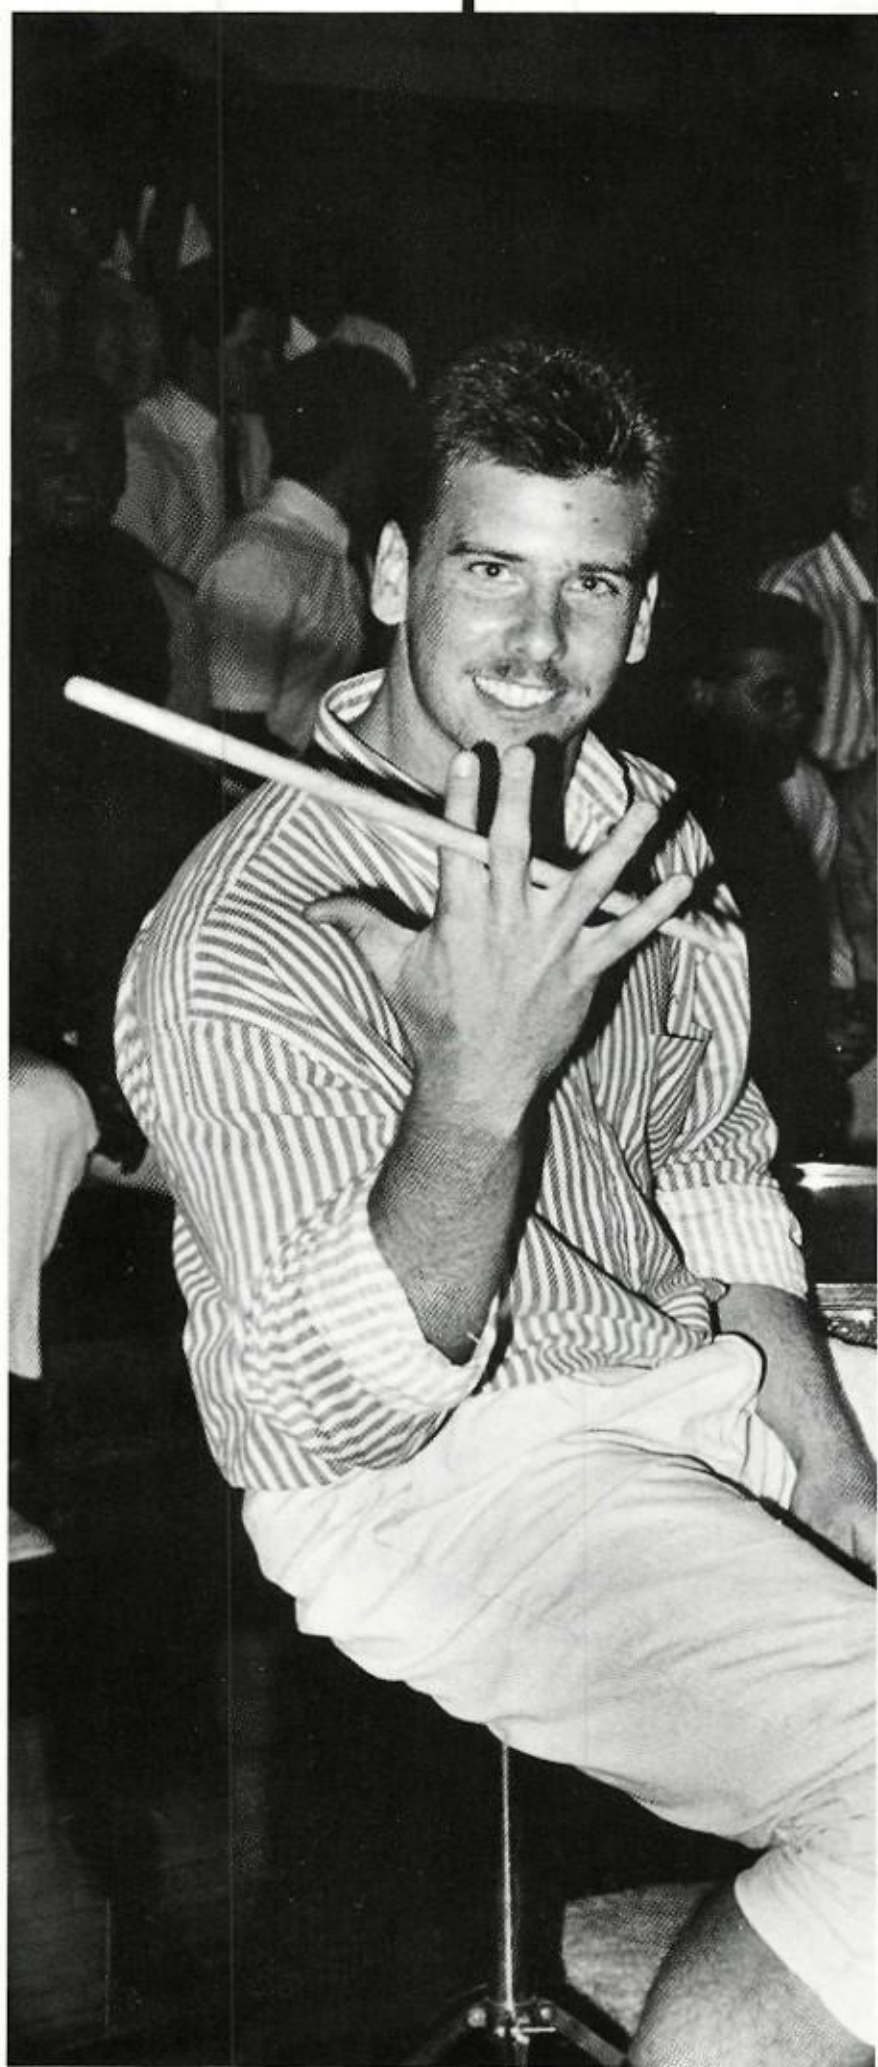

Life at ASH in many ways is like a play. Each club, activity, teacher, and student has a specific role to perform in producing Alexandria Senior High, Central Louisiana's premiere high school. Whether it be leading lady or supporting actor, we read from similar scripts. We rave over the same costumes: "Skirts to the knees!" We wait for the same big breaks: "Did ya hear? Brandow cancelled today's test!" We play for the same audiences: "Look at this schedule: Cyphert, Grider, AND Butcher!"

1988 has been no different from years past. The stage was set, the curtain was drawn, and on August 21, the performance began. Once again ASH students have given an academy award performance with their outstanding academic accomplishments, co-curricular activities, community service, and excellence in sports. One word best sums up this year's production: ENCORE!

Presidential Classroom

Whether Ann Hse wandered through the Smithsonian, or Charles Neal surveyed the city from the top of the Washington Monument, both ASH students experienced the excitement of the annual Presidential Classroom Award in Washington D.C. A week in the nation's capital is awarded to exceptional seniors each year. Charles Neal and Ann Hse were chosen to represent ASH's class of 1988.

Pel State

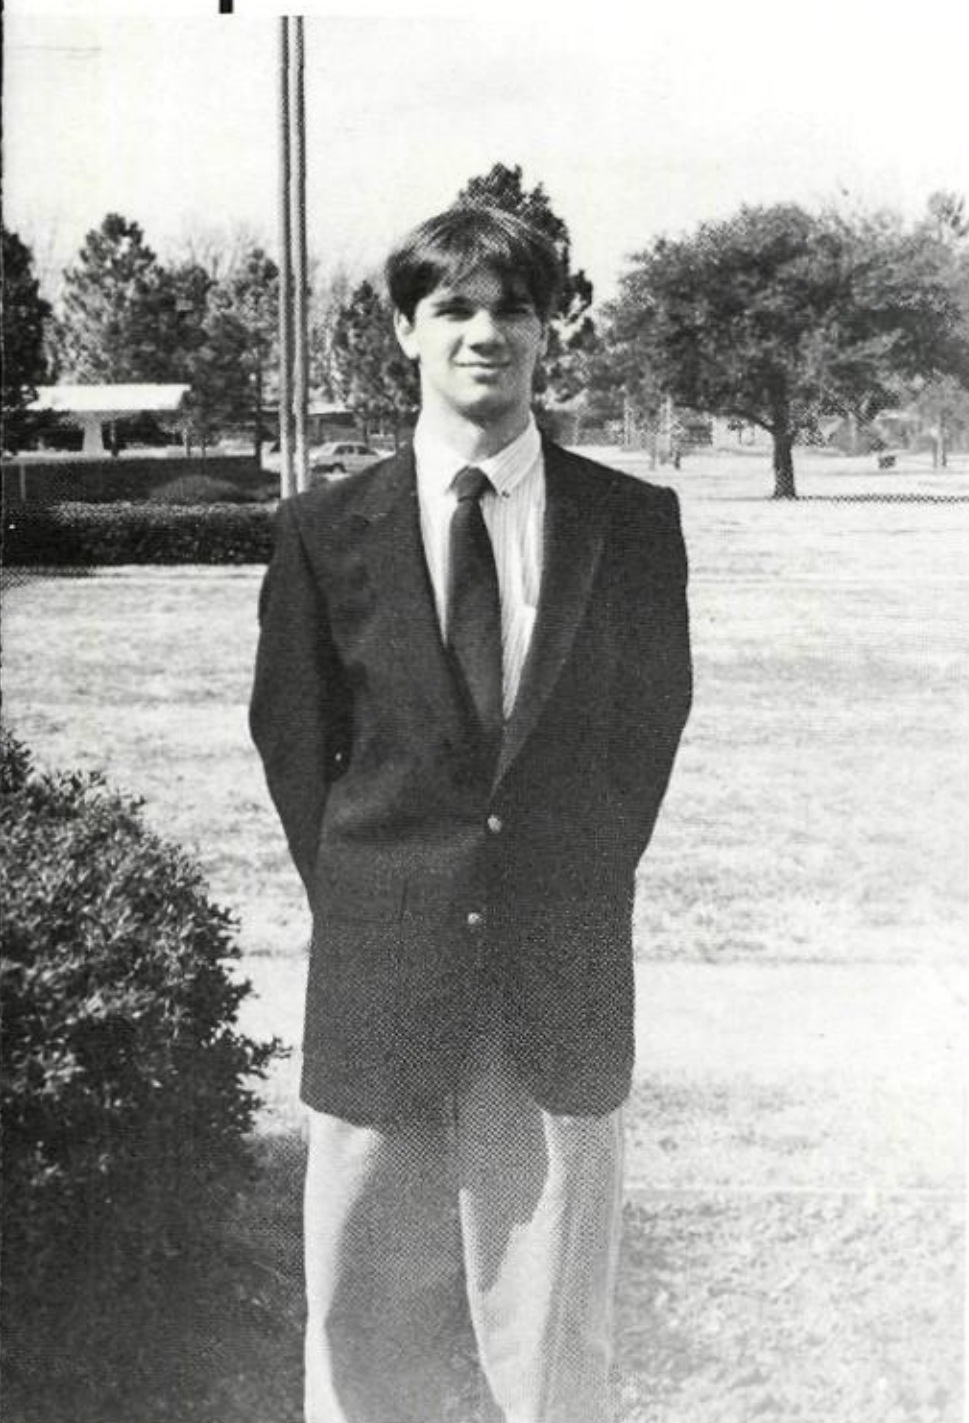

Understanding our state's complex government is a real challenge, but for thirteen ASH students, it's a challenge met and conquered. Those students attended a week long summer workshop in Baton Rouge which consists of mock elections, the filling of official positions, and the explanation of state laws. The delegates return with a clearer view of state government, which prepares them to take an active role in their government. Representing ASH this year were: Kari Belvin, Aaron Bishop, Patrick Burchfield, Lana Davis, Lola Davis, Joey Fisher, Shane Gauthier, Brad Herrington, Lynna Lai, William Lubelski, Troy Metoyer, Ross Miller, and Karin Rossby.

Pat On the Back

Each year the faculty chooses two students to receive the Pat-on-the-Back Award, which is sponsored by the Optimist Club. The two students chosen, a boy and a girl, possess qualities of service and leadership in relation to their school and community. This year's recipients are Ann Hse and Charles Neal.

D.A.R.

The DAR award is presented each year by the Loyalty Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The award is given to a student who shows qualities of service, leadership, and patriotism. This year's recipient is William Lubelski.

*District Games

The 87-88 Trojans had an outstanding year as they clinched district in AAA with a 6-0 record and finished 1-1 in the quarter finals of the play-offs! This is the first time ever that ASH has won district without sharing the title with another team.

Head coach Butch Stoker said that success was due to the drive and determination of the players and coaches to prepare more during the summer. They committed themselves to make it to the Superdome, and they worked hard for this goal.

It is easy to see how this preparation and determination paid off when some of the players' fantastic statistics during the regular year are recognized. Quarterback Mark Jacobs totalled 114 completions in passing which spanned 2,094 yards with 21 touchdown passes. Wide Receiver Jerry Roberson ran a total of 387 yards scored 5 touchdowns, and made 38 receptions. Runningback Sherrod Jones rushed a total of 475 yards out of 99 attempts and scored 2 touchdowns. Linebacker James Joiner led the team with 17 sacks for a total of 66 yards. Free safety Shane Ducote made 20 solo tackles with 3 interceptions. Kicker Chris Boniol scored a total of 40 points out of extra points and field goals.

Thus the Trojans proved wrong the pre-season prediction that no team could win district alone in 1987 — The Year of the ASH Trojans!

District Champs: Masters of the Game

The 86-87 Trojans had another dynamite year as they took district in AAAA for the second year straight. They finished 13-4 overall when they were defeated in the state AAAA semifinals.

This success was due in large measure to the outstanding performance of the players. Junior Craig Bradshaw made All-Star pitcher with a win-loss record of 13-0. Senior Tim Johnson made All-District outfield and hit .318.

Freshman Charlie Jones was All-District 3rd baseman and hit .482, and Junior Marvin Cole was All-District shortstop hitting .419. There are definitely professional prospects on this team! Head Coach Don Boniol believes "They really had a great year considering they were so young." Coach Boniol is also looking forward to another fabulous year as many of his All-District players return.

BASKETBALL

Superb Shots

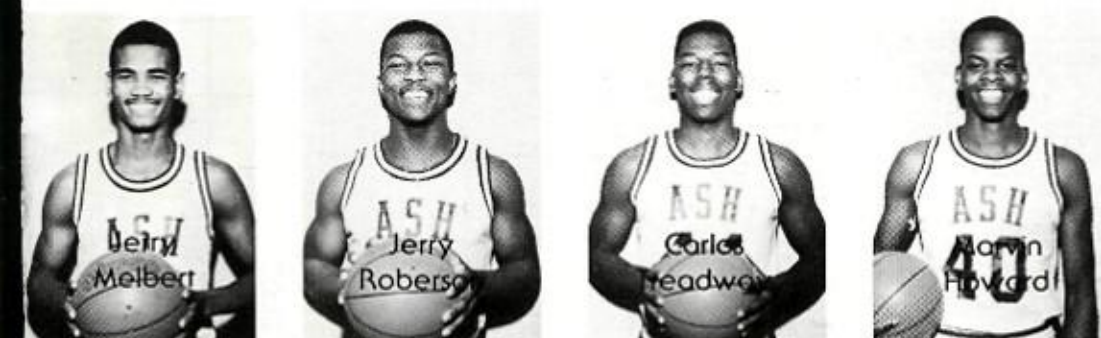

The 1987-88 season saw the debut of the three point shot in high school play. According to Coach Berlin, the three pointer has opened up the outside game, and ASH has capitalized on this. The outstanding shooting of Jerry Melbert and Theron Smith has, in turn, opened up the inside game for Helanus Mack and Marvin Howard. The next season looks promising with the excellent play of the bench this year.

Lady Trojans '88 AAA District Champs!

GIRLS BASKETBALL

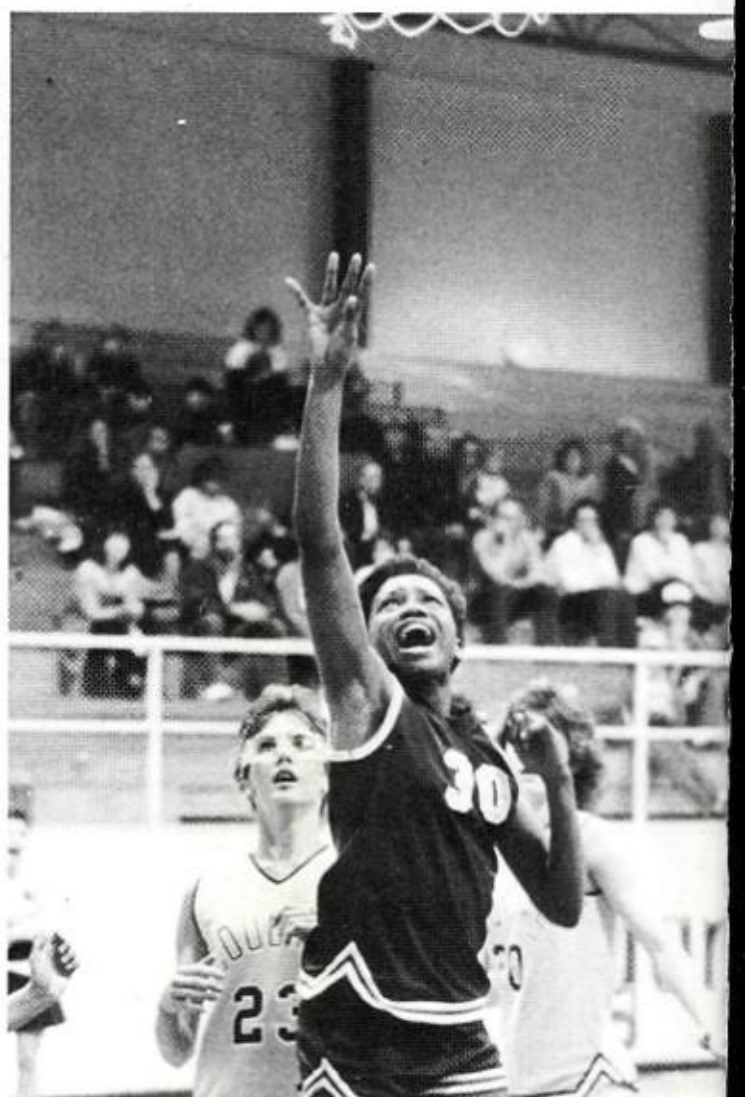

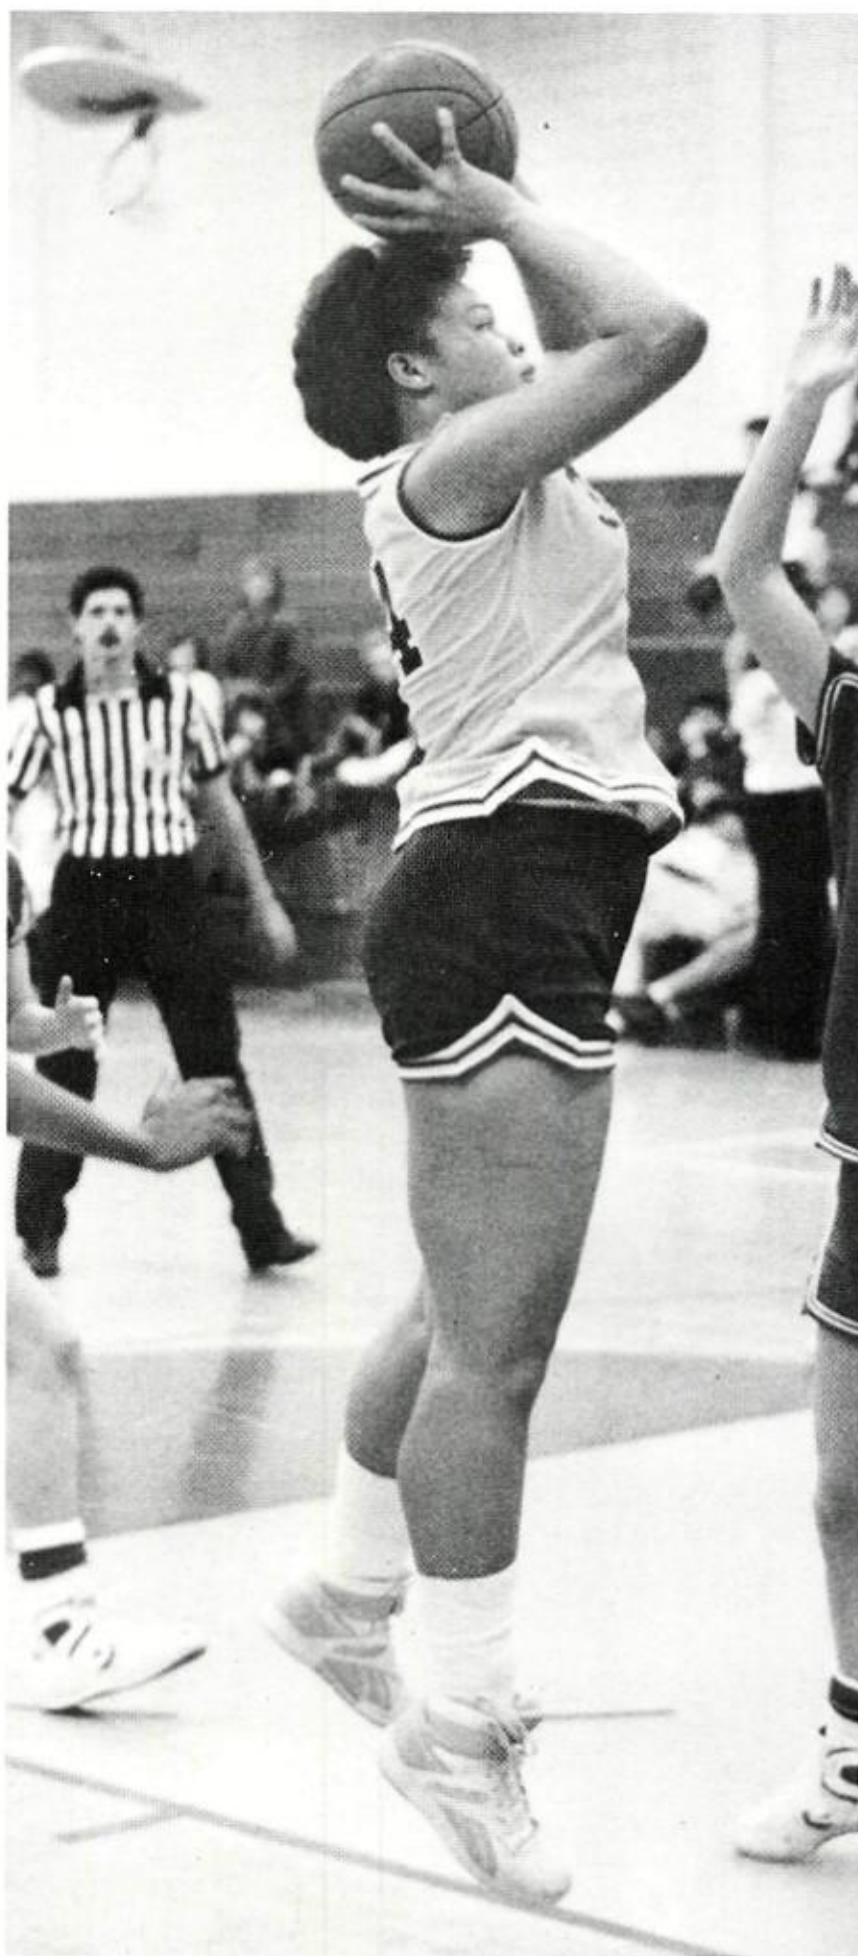

The 1987-88 girls basketball team had a sensational season this year in AAA. With a 17 game winning streak, the girls made ASH history with their best record ever. Umekki Anderson made All District for the second straight year and led the Lady Trojans with an average of 20 points scored per game and 10 rebounds per game. Umekki scored over 800 points at ASH in just 2 years and, according to Coach Looper, was largely responsible for the win of district. It is evident that the Lady Trojans will return next season with another outstanding performance since most of their starters will be returning.

Carla,
I am so glad we got to go to the same school again this year. And I am glad we have continued to be great friends. Remember last year when you + scott, me + Grady went out in Grady's car and we got so drunk. Or should I say just "you." Gosh that was funny. Gosh we have so many funny stories to tell or remember. I sure wish Tracey could have shared most of them with us. We have to get together this summer. (you + me + Jen)
(Brad + Grady + Ken)

Love ya,
Janet B.

Charla,

Hey baby! Well I'm really glad I met you this year. I probably would not even know you if it wasn't Erin. You are a really great friend and your friendship means a lot to me. Thank you for always being there for me and talking to me about my problems with Darby. You always know exactly what to say to make me feel better. Having P.E. with you this year has really been great. Just fucking off & getting away with what we can. You are a really super person, who is really sweet and pretty. I'm so glad that you & Bo have lasted so long. I hope it works out. I am really pissed off that you are ~~moving~~ moving, just who the hell are you. To move off on me. J/Y. Baby, I am going to miss you a lot when you move. I'll better receive a letter at least once a week. I'm just joking. You are super.
